

Verena Pichler Receives Sponsorship Award from the City of Vienna

Verena Pichler from the Division of Pharmaceutical Chemistry has been honored with the sponsorship award by the City of Vienna in the fields of mathematics, computer science, natural sciences, and technology.

The award, which includes a generous prize of 4,000 euros and a commendation certificate, was presented to Verena Pichler in October. The sponsorship awards by the City of Vienna have a rich history dating back to 1951.

Each year, they serve as a platform to honor individuals and teams whose work or residence has been within the vibrant city of Vienna for a minimum of three years. An additional criterion for eligibility is that the recipients must be under the age of 40 at the time of submission. Verena Pichler, another member of the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences, has been honored with this prize, following in the footsteps of Elke Heiss in 2013 and Gerhard Ecker in 2002.
